SUSAN: Mary?

MARY: Hi.

SUSAN: Hello. I'm Susan Thompson, Human Resource Manager here.

MARY: Hi. I'm Mary Hansen, and I'm applying for one your kitchen jobs.

SUSAN: Great.

MARY: Here's a copy of my resume.

SUSAN: Great. Have a seat, Mary.

MARY: Thank you.

SUSAN: Mary, do you have any experience working in the kitchen?

MARY: No, but I want to learn. I work hard and I cook a lot at home.

SUSAN: Okay, well, tell me about yourself.

MARY: Well, I love to learn new things. I'm very organized, and I follow directions exactly. Uh, that's why my boss at my last job made me a trainer, and the company actually gave me a special certificate for coming to work on time every day for a year. And I'm taking an English class to improve my writing skills.

SUSAN: That's great. Why did you leave your last job?

MARY: It was graveyard, and I need to work days.

SUSAN: I see. Well, what hours can you work?

MARY: Um, from 8 a.m. until 5 p.m.

SUSAN: Okay, well, do you have any questions for me, Mary?

MARY: Yes, what kind of training is needed?

SUSAN: Not a lot. Most new workers can learn everything the first day. Do you have any other questions?

MARY: No, I don't think so, but I've heard a lot of good things about your company, and I would really like to work here.

SUSAN: Well, I have a few more interviews to do today, but I will call you tomorrow if you get the job.

MARY: Okay.

SUSAN: It was sure nice to meet you.

MARY: Nice meeting you, too. Thank you so much for your time.

SUSAN: Yes, good luck.

MARY: Thank you
